

ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS

Citizens Are Questioned Regarding Taxable List.

PLAN FOR ELKS' MEETING

Boy Scouts to Give Entertainment in Observance of Fourth Anniversary.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., September 10.—Many citizens today went over their interrogatories for state taxation with W. N. Lipscomb, examiner of records for the sixteenth judicial circuit, who came to Alexandria for that purpose. Mr. Lipscomb met his callers in the corporation court room and discussed with them their reports. In some instances changes were made and minor details of the reports given over.

Mr. Lipscomb stated that he was gratified with the response on the part of citizens in order to straighten out their reports before being finally presented to the state authorities for taxation. He also stated that he is willing to meet the citizens half way on the making out of such reports.

Interrogatories examined today were on intangible property, including stocks, bonds, capital invested in business enterprises and money in bank, on which the state places a certain tax. The visit of Mr. Lipscomb today had nothing to do with the payment of omitted taxes on merchants' licenses. Several of the retail merchants already have made reports. However, a majority have retained legal counsel to resist the payment of omitted taxes, and some of the wholesalers. This matter will be taken up for consideration by Mr. Lipscomb at a future date.

Elks Convene October 5, 6 and 7.

Alexandria is going to take on holiday garb for the annual state convention of the Virginia Elks' Association here October 5, 6 and 7. Plans for this affair are now in the hands of various committees, and the committee on decorations, which is one of the important committees, will hold a meeting Monday night and award the contract for street decorations.

King street, the main thoroughfare of the city, will be gayly bedecked with Elks' colors—purple and white—which will be suspended from the cross arms of poles all the way down the street, and from which will also be suspended pennants and banners.

Merchants along this street have been requested to have their windows lighted at night during the progress of the convention. Citizens generally will be asked to display flags from their homes and places of business. Alexandria is planning to give the Elks one of the biggest times that they have ever had in any city in the state at a convention.

Plan to Attend Dedication.

Arrangements for attending the ceremonies incident to the dedication of the new Scottish Rite Temple in Washington in October will be made tonight by Washington Memorial Lodge of Perfection, No. 7, Scottish Rite Masons. It is expected that a class of nearly twenty-five from this city will be initiated with the Washingtonians on the night of the dedication. Many members of the lodge from here have planned to attend the exercises.

Work of issuing permits to children to attend the public schools was completed this afternoon with the issuing of permits to the children living in the annexed territory. More than 100 were issued. Practically all is now in readiness for the reopening of the public schools Monday.

An entertainment will be given at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Westminster building by members of Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts, in observance of the fourth anniversary. Participants will include Miss Evelyn Howard, Miss Bertha Bender, Congress Heights, D. C.; Miss Flora Kall, Washington; Master Talbot Hasset, Harvey Curtis and Horace Crump.

Funeral of Arthur Simpson.

The funeral of Arthur Simpson, who died from injuries sustained by being struck by a work train of the Washington-Virginia Railway Company, will take place at 5 o'clock this afternoon from his late home, 500 South Patrick street. Burial will be conducted by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace P. E. Church, and burial will be in Union cemetery.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Katie Mercer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Mercer of Casanova, Va., and Edwin H. Padgett, which took place at the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. Padgett will reside at Braddock, Alexandria county.

The funeral of Thomas A. Groves, who died in Washington, will take place at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the First Baptist Church. Services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. W. F. Watson, pastor of the church. Mr. Groves was injured Wednesday night as the result of a fall from an automobile, is reported as unchanged. Mr. Groves is now a patient at the Alexandria Hospital.

JOE MUNCIE ALL-AGE VICTOR.

Kentucky Setter Takes Event in Great Western Field Trials.

ABERDEEN, S. D., September 10.—The English setter Joe Muncie, owned by J. K. Smith of Eminence, Ky., and handled by W. D. Musk of Bolivar, Tenn., won the all-age stake of the great western field trials, which began here Tuesday with twenty starters. Second place went to the setter Babbie Brook Bob, owned by Louis McGraw of Pittsburgh, and third was divided between the setters Melrose Mohawk, owned by Judge D. G. McDonnell of Vancouver, B. C., and Osage, owned and handled by J. M. Arent of Hickory Valley, Tenn.

Joe Muncie won the stake on his excellent work on prairie chickens in the first heat and his marvelous range and speed in the second. This dog is the same setter which won the amateur championship of America at Rogers Springs, Tenn., last January.

Babbie Brook Bob is also a well known winner, and only last week got third in the trials held at Denbigh, N. D. Osage never was placed before, but Melrose Mohawk, the British Columbia dog, has won frequently in field trials.

ROCKVILLE AND COUNTY

Dawson Lycourgs Farmer and Miss Jennie C. Ennis Wed—Youth Bars Marriage.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

ROCKVILLE, Md., September 10.—Dawson Lycourgs Farmer of Magnolia, Ohio, and Miss Jennie C. Ennis of Greenmount, Md., were married in Rockville last evening by Rev. Samuel R. White of the Baptist Church at the home of the minister.

The same minister officiated at the marriage here yesterday of William Gordon Palmateer of Richmond, Va., and Miss Lillian Sweet Belasco of Washington. The marriage ceremony was performed at the home of the minister.

The second reunion of the class of 1913 of the Montgomery County High School was held recently at the home of Miss Jessie C. Ennis at Washington Grove. There were present Misses Amy Robertson, Olive Gillis and Mary Kelly, Mrs. Paul Lehman, Gaither Warfield, Nathan White and Paul Anderson.

The failure of John H. Leeth of Grovettes, Va., to bring with him the written consent of his parents, as required by law in cases of minors, was the obstacle in the way of his becoming the husband here yesterday of Miss Olive Maud Miller, also of Grovettes. In making the application for a license the young man gave his age as twenty, and the license clerk was powerless to issue the desired paper without written parental consent.

Frank Higgins and James B. Henderson, trustees, have sold to Austin T. Powell and William T. Martin of this county a tract of 285 acres of land near Elchison, this county, for $2,000. The property is known as "The Barrens."

MRS. VANDERBECK STARS IN WOMEN'S TOURNEY

Breaks Course Record Again at Chicago and Goes Into the Semi-Finals Today.

CHICAGO, September 10.—Breaking the course record for a second time within four days, Mrs. C. H. Vanderbeck of Philadelphia yesterday survived the third match round in the women's national championship golf tournament at the Onwentsia Club by defeating Mrs. Ernest L. Beinfeld of Chicago, 3 and 1. As the lone eastern contender in the semi-finals today, Mrs. Vanderbeck will meet Miss Alexa Stirling, southern champion, who eliminated another Chicagoan, Miss Marjorie Edwards, 5 and 4.

The other semi-final contest will be between Miss Ernestine Pearce, the only remaining Chicagoan, who won from Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow of Philadelphia, 4 and 2, contrary to expectation of the experts, and Mrs. W. A. Gavin of New Britain, who had no trouble beating Miss Eleanor Allen of Boston, the only New Englander in the meet, 4 and 2.

Mrs. Vanderbeck attracted a large gallery after Mrs. Barlow had fallen, and the eastern woman rewarded the onlookers with the most brilliant golf of the tournament thus far. She had made the 6,435-yard course in 85 during the qualifying round Monday, setting a record for the difficult, reconstructed links. She had comparatively easy matches Tuesday and Wednesday, but yesterday she had to play the heat to the way to overcome Mrs. Beinfeld. She set a new record of 84, women's par. Mrs. Beinfeld, with a 7 and an 8, made the course in 90. Mrs. Vanderbeck equaled men's par on six holes and made a 3 on the 314-yard fifth. Mrs. Beinfeld made men's par on four holes and made a birdie 2 on the sixteenth. On the form displayed yesterday the match today between Mrs. Vanderbeck and Miss Stirling should be close.

In Excellent Form.

Miss Stirling, the only entrant from south of the Ohio, has played in excellent form during the entire tournament thus far. She was third in the qualifying round and displayed nerve in defeating Mrs. Harry Hammond of Indianapolis, former western champion, in an extra hole match in the first round. She has easy contests Wednesday and yesterday, but kept up her championship pace. She is not shooting as close to par as Mrs. Vanderbeck, but is very steady for her seventeen years of age.

Miss Pearce, who is an artist by profession, put some of her art into the game and surprised even her sponsors by beating Mrs. Barlow, the Philadelphia expert, who accounted for Mrs. Lillian Hyde, the premier golfer of New York city. She had four holes in men's par, while Mrs. Barlow made only one in such figures, despite an approximate total of 94.

Although Miss Pearce plays in splendid form and gets a long ball, she is not advancing in this respect over Mrs. Gavin, whom she must play today. The Briton has been a big game hunter and aviator and actress, and makes all her strokes with quick decision and freedom. She has not had any difficult matches thus far, but has played close to 90 every round.

Siam post offices last year handled 5,873,652 pieces of mail.
